2009 Annual Tentmaking Conference

Friday (dinner) October 30 through
Sunday (lunch) November 1

Doing Ministry With Muddy Feet

Moving from the drudgery of the daily grind to the joy of knowing our heartfelt desire.

Jesus rejoiced, exuberant in the Holy Spirit.
Psalm 37:4
Luke 10:21

At This Conference, You Can Expect To:

- Gain practical tools for moving beyond the institutional confines of church and seminary. Learn how tentmaking ministry is uniquely suited. Discover the keys for engaging in mission and building bridges with non-profit entities with our 3 speakers.
- Immerse yourself in all facets of the tentmaking model and network with veteran tentmakers and other birds of a feather; through our weekend of panel discussions, workshops, fellowship & community building.

Doing Ministry With Muddy Feet Might Include:

- expanding our comfort zone and working alongside “the other” in collaborative models
- listening to the new voices of tentmaking in ecumenical and non-profit contexts
- straining our missional muscles and getting our hands dirty (not just church clean-up)
- thinking transformationally (“we can change the world”)
- committing to a risky or long-term project (other than capital improvements to our sanctuary or Christian education wing)

Weekend Highlights Will Include

- Inspiring video/photo presentations and stories of non-profit work in Haiti and local communities – how you can do the same
- Unorthodox panel discussion and dialogue with local and international mission representatives
- Experiential learning & community building exercises relevant to our collaborative theme and tentmaking
- Creative worship, Bible study, Eucharist & small interactive group work

Not to Mention:

- The heart and soul of all APT annual conferences; taking the time to tell our stories, reenergize, connect, share our vision and common ground with one another
- Fresh air time in inspiring surroundings
- APT annual meeting – time for advocacy, strategy, and planning
